note :

- The scholarship application deadline is based on the date announced by the department office.
- Except for the poverty alleviation scholarship, students who have already been awarded other scholarships from the university for the current semester are not eligible to apply for this scholarship. Duplicate applications will result in the scholarship being revoked.
- If any of the information provided by the applicant is found to be untrue, the awarded scholarship will be revoked, and disciplinary actions will be taken in accordance with university regulations.
- The disbursement amount and quota of scholarships are subject to adjustment based on the department's annual budget flexibility.
- The scholarship evaluation criteria are determined and handled entirely by the department's review committee.
